MARRONE'S HORSES UNDER THE BAN AT JACKSONVILLE.

Trainer Mayberry and Jockey Bergeon also suspended because of Pantouffe's Form Reversal—Starter Mars Cassidy Returns from the Juarez Meeting.

Joseph Marrone, a wealthy Italian contractor who has attracted attention since the time of the race track, has been ordered to leave the Jacksonville track and has been barred temporarily from the Jennings track and incidentally brought suit for $50,000 damages. The reversal of course shocked Judge Joseph A. Murphy and the straightened out the case. In view of the many queer stories of methods at Jacksonville it was said yesterday that the Jockey Club would pay very little attention to the rulings of Murphy and the Jockey Club would pay very little attention to the rulings of Murphy and the Jockey Club would pay very little attention to the rulings of Murphy.

ARRANGING FOR REGATTA.

Harlem Gamers Likely to Cut Out Glee Race Officials.

The Harlem Regatta Association regatta committee met last night at the Harlem Casino for the purpose of electing officials, appointing sub-committees and arranging other minor details of the Memorial Day meet. One of the events on the programme, the junior four oar, caused a lengthy discussion, and from what was said it is not very certain that the race will be included in the final program.

The term glee is rather elastic by which it is possible to introduce a shell with the words removed and call it a glee. This can be done by attaching a washboard or other musical instrument to the glee. This can be done by attaching a washboard or other musical instrument to the glee.

HARVARD HALL PLAYER HURT.

Winters, a Freshman, Breaks His Leg in Practice.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., March 21.—The practice of the freshman basketball team on Soldiers Field this afternoon was marred by a severe injury. Archie F. Winters of Westover, Mass., a candidate for the infield, suffered a dislocation of the ankle and a compound fracture of the leg in sliding for the first into first base in an attempt to beat out a bunt. There has been no such serious injury on the Harvard squad since Aronson fractured his skull in the Annapolis game two years ago.

In the varsity practice the second team defeated the first for the second time in the season, making a five inning game by the score of 7 to 2. Hicks was used for two innings. The first time the freshman squad of last year, was also tried. Both of them did not do well. Hicks was made off a 1913 pitcher who succeeded them.

She may be put overboard this week and then the interior fittings put in so that she can start on her voyage across the Atlantic about the end of April. This craft has been built in the Westward and will be the most important yacht that has been built at Bristol since the Reliance.

Southern Collegians Work the Old Hibernian Trick on Hal Chase—Vaughn, Ford and Upham Do Good Work in the Box—Many Players in Lineup.

ATLANTA, Ga., March 21.—For the second time during the training trip the Highlanders defeated the University of Georgia today. The score is one that should hold the amateurs at arm's length for some time to come. It was a shutout victory for the team.

The American Leaguers simply massacred every batsman they opposed, could produce until they became tired of the game. The pitching of Jim Vaughn and the batting of Hal Chase and Casey were the main features of the game. COLUMBIA LOSES IN JARSHAM.

Rowing of Varsity Eight Out on Account of Ineligibility.

The Columbia varsity crew squad lost another rehearsal yesterday afternoon when Paul Renshaw, 11, quit rowing for the year on account of ineligibility. Renshaw rowed No. 5 in the 1908 varsity eight at Poughkeepsie and last year in the varsity eight. His loss will be keenly felt by the entire squad, for he had been depended upon to row in his old position at bow this June. A peculiar feature of Renshaw's giving up rowing is the fact that he is the only one of the crew who is not a member of the Columbia crew club.

It is expected that Saunders, who rowed No. 4 in the 1908 varsity eight, will take his place in the 1910 varsity eight. JACKSONVILLE, Fla., March 21.—This was the tenth day of the racing meeting. Large fields went to the post, but upsets were plenty, with Gout and Edwin 1, the only choices to reward the faithful. C. W. Hurt, backed from 20 to 1 to 2 to 1, was the only choice to reward the faithful.
